

BONALDO

Nelson vanity and home office

Designer: Matteo Nunziati

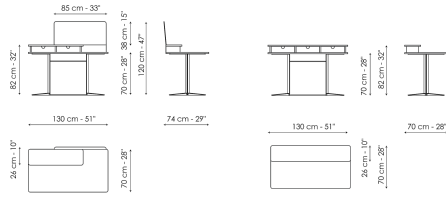

Clean lines and a contemporary feel characterise this piece of the Nelson collection by Matteo Nunziati, which can be chosen in its vanity table or home office version. Inspired by the Modern Movement - a period aimed at renewing the character, design and principles of architecture - it features meticulous details that enhance the surfaces. The Canaletto walnut top is supported by a metal base with a pared-back yet contemporary design. In the vanity version, the rectangular mirror and lacquered wood drawers complete the look, making it practical and suitable for everyday use. Nelson can also be a home office ready to adapt seamlessly to all rooms in the home, becoming a faithful "ally" whatever the need.
